Dear Mr. Winfrey:

I am writing you in regards to a letter we received from you this past week. Unfortunately we will not be able to assist you with the law suit portion of your case, since we do not practice that area of law. I have also taken the time to review your status at the Cook County Jail, and I notice your case is still pending. The next court date is December 7, 2007. CGLA does handle criminal defense law, and if you are interested in receiving assistance for that matter, you may have a family member come down and fill out a jail intake form. If they choose to come, they need to know your full name, city address, jail ID number, birthdate, social security number and your division number. This enables CGLA to do a background check. If we come out to interview you, we need to make sure you do not have more than two convictions on your background. There will also be a twenty dollar intake fee if you pass the background check.

I am also giving you a referral for the lawsuit portion of your case. You may contact Citizens Alert at (312) 223-1802, address is 203 North Wabash Avenue, Suite 711, Chicago, IL 60601. Then there is help from The Legal Assistance Foundation, the phone number is (312) 341-1070; address is 111 West Jackson Boulevard, 3rd Floor, Chicago, IL 60604. I hope I have been helpful and I wish you the best. God bless.

Sincerely,

Dept. of Cook County Jail
P.O. Box 089002
Chicago, IL 60608

Dear Mr. Winfrey:

Thank you for your recent letter to CARPLS seeking legal assistance. CARPLS is a legal aid telephone hotline, and we give legal advice and referrals to low-income residents of Cook County over the phone. We cannot respond to questions by mail, and we also do not represent people directly in court. We are here to help low income people who either reside in Cook County or whose legal problem is in Cook County.

You indicated that you have civil cases that you are trying to pursue. Unfortunately, for cases concerning treatment while in pre-trial detention, it is generally private attorneys who take on such cases, not the free legal aid clinics in Cook County. You might want to try and find a private attorney to review the matter for you, such as through the Chicago Bar Association, seeking a civil rights attorney.

If you would like to talk to one of our staff attorneys, please call or have someone call on your behalf to our hotline number (312-738-9200) for assistance, M, T, Th and F from 9-4:30, or W from 9-7:30. I wish you all the best.

Sincerely,
